DANGER SIGNALS.

No engineer would be mad enough to run by the flag which signaled danger. It is different with the average man or woman. They attempt constantly to run by the danger signals of Nature and that attempt costs thousands of lives every year. When the appetite becomes irregular or entirely gives out, when sleep is troubled and broken, when there is a constant feeling of dullness and languor, Nature is hoisting the danger signal. The stomach and its allied organs are failing in their work and the body is losing the nutrition on which its strength depends.

Such a condition calls for a prompt use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, purifies and enriches the blood and builds up the body with sound, solid flesh.

"I have had so much benefit from your medicines am glad to say a few words that you may use for publication," writes Mrs. J. R. Downes, Crystal Lake, Conn. "Had been troubled with a complication of diseases for over two years, but kidneys and liver bothered me most. Some of my worst ailments were headache, frequent pains around heart and under right shoulder-blade. My hands and feet were cold nearly all the time, and I had such chilliness between shoulders. Some days cared but little for food; I lost flesh; felt so tired and miserable it seemed I couldn't do any housework. Took medicine from my physician, but received no benefit. Bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and after taking it I felt so much better we determined to give it a fair trial. Appetite soon improved and gradually the disorders disappeared until now I am well."

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

GERMANY IN MOROCCO.

Chancellor von Buelow, speaking on Morocco in the German Reichstag yesterday, said that "Germany would in the first instance place herself in communication with the Sultan of Morocco."

Germany had such interests in Morocco as other trading countries, such interests as she had in China and other parts of the world. These interests were real and would be protected in Morocco according to the open-door principle.

Herr Rebel, the socialist leader, had raised the Morocco question by criticising the government for taking diplomatic action to safeguard German opportunities in Morocco long after the Franco-British agreement, when it should have acted a year ago.

Chancellor von Buelow said that, although the moment was not politically opportune to discuss Germany's relations with Morocco, he would say that Emperor William had declared more than a year ago to the King of Spain that Germany had no selfish aims against the territorial integrity or independence of Morocco. The Emperor's visit to Morocco had no aggressive purpose, but, apart from the independence of Morocco and apart from the Emperor's visit, German economic interests remained to be protected, and they would be. Those interests were considerable.

The Sued-Deutsch Reichs-Correspondenz, regarded as voicing Chancellor von Buelow's views, says Emperor William's visit to Morocco shows that Germany "continues her relations with the sovereign of Morocco, and does not and will not give up such relations to France, which seeks to exercise a controlling influence in Morocco."

A dispatch from Paris says:—Chancellorvon Buelow's speech in the Reichstag yesterday on the subject of Germany's attitude toward Morocco is likely to exert a strong influence on the Moroccan situation. The general view prevails that the Chancellor's language, while moderate and dignified, nevertheless discloses Germany's purpose not to recognize the Anglo-French agreement giving France a paramount position in Morocco. The Chancellor's allusion to maintaining the open door without limit evidently was directed against the 30 year limit of the agreement. The reference to maintaining the Sultan's sovereignty an Germany's dealing directly with the Sultan also is likely to arouse feeling, not because France has an opposite policy, but because the declaration, coincident with Emperor William's visit, gives rather assertive prominence to Germany's expectations concerning a country in which France is deeply interested.

BULL ON THE RAMPAGE.

Angered at the sight of a crimson spring gown, a big bull being led to the Schwartzschild & Sulzberger plant in New York for slaughter, went on a rampage along Broadway yesterday afternoon. The enraged animal chased women into stores and up stairways, drove a doctor up an elevated pillar, scattered pedestrians right and left along Thirty-fourth street, threw ferry passengers into a panic and, plunging into the East river, swam, pursued by a boat, to a rock in the middle of the river. There, monarch of all he surveyed, he chased off packing-house employes who tried to capture him, and was the cynosure of thousands of eyes.

The bull, fat and sleek, looked innocent enough as he was led along, blinking at the trolley cars. Mrs. H. W. Carter, a sister of Miss Ella Reader, the woman financial genius, who undertook to finance Santo Domingo, was passing wearing a new red spring gown. The bull looked at the gown with rage and fire in his eyes. Then, stopping suddenly, he lowered his head and charged. With a shriek, Mrs. Carter ran for a doorway and leaped up a flight of stairs faster than she ever climbed before. The bull ran to the foot of the stairs, stopped, turned around and glared at Dr. Edward Wallace Lee and a companion. Someone in the street hit at him with a cane, and, his temper not improved, the animal charged at Dr. Lee. The physician ran to an elevated railroad pillar, which he started to circle, ring-around-the-rosy fashion, the bull in pursuit. Unable to bring the physician down, the bull, burning with desire for the freedom he had known on the western plains, ran from Eighth avenue and Forty-fourth street to Broadway, down Broadway to Forty-second street, from Grand Central Station to Third avenue and Thirty-fifth street, and east to the river. Men, women and children fled at his approach. People rushed out of stores and looked in amazement. A great crowd, led by a squad of policemen and small boys followed on his trail, but all were unable to keep up, and those with ropes got no chance to use them. Before the crowd had a chance to cheer the bull made one rush. A second later the would be cowboys turned and dived into the river. Reaching their boat, they rowed away for life. The packing-house employes later returned and succeeded in capturing the bull. They got him into a boat after hard work, and landed him on Blackwells Island.

Is it cheapest to buy what is cheapest in price or what is best in value?

Carried Out Woman Who Refused to Dress.

Although their home farm had been sold at sheriff's sale the family of James Dittenhafer, in Butler township, near Gettysburg, Pa., refused to vacate, and Deputy Sheriffs J. Edward Reiling and Charles H. Wilson were sent to the premises yesterday morning by the sheriff to oust them. A massive bulldog chained to the front door detained the officers for a short time, but Wilson procured a clothes line, and after lassoing the brute an entrance was made. The entire family had undressed, and, having crawled into bed, they refused to move. The officers removed all the furniture in the house and soon carried out all the Dittenhafer family, with the exception of Mrs. Dittenhafer, who positively refused to leave her bed. The modest officers say that they hated to use force on the woman, but feeling that the dignity of the law must be maintained, they drew straws, and Wilson having lost, took a deep breath, shut his eyes, and, taking the shrieking woman in his arms, carried her out and deposited her in a chair in the road.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, MAR. 30, 1905.

THE BIRTHPLACE of Diogenes is enlisting the interest of the curious, and Professor D. M. Robinson, of Illinois College, in a lecture in Baltimore yesterday on the ancient city of Sinope, situated on the southern shore of the Black Sea, asserted that the cynic first saw the light of day in that place. He produced nothing tangible upon which to base the claim. There were many philosophers and sages in classic days, reminiscences of whom would be interesting to many at this time, but why any one should spend time or thought in endeavoring to ascertain the birthplace of Diogenes is hard to understand. Some amusing things are told of this individual—most of which are doubtless apocryphal. On one occasion, it is said, he walked through the streets of Athens with a lamp in broad day time "looking for a man"—that is, what he regarded as a proper specimen of the genus homo—one who could live in a tub, eat raw flesh and deny himself all the comforts of life. It is said that he once made a vow to the gods, and when he was forced to fulfil the same he entered the temple of Diana and sacrificed one of his own parasites upon the altar of the goddess. He offered an insult to his fellow-beings when he appeared with his lamp and treated with contempt the deities of his country when he insulted Artemis. While Alexander the Great was dying from a debauch in Babylon Diogenes was expiring in terrible agony from eating too much raw beef for his supper. The former gave loose rein to his passions and thereby abbreviated his life; the cynic, in endeavoring to subsist as a brute beast, brought on death. It is said that Alexander once stood in front of Diogenes's tub and surveyed the inmate. The colloquy which took placed is in our school books. They were both destined to take their own lives—one in a sea of sensuality; the other as a brute that dies in a den.

THE CONFESSION of the fiend who placed an infernal machine on the pier of the steamer Umbria in New York some time ago was published in Tuesday's Gazette. According to this man's statement, the Maine was destroyed by one of his bombs which was intended for a Spanish man-of-war. The deponent further stated that his fellow-fiend, when he realized that he had been the means of hurling into eternity between two and three thousand people, committed suicide. The consequences of the act did not stop with the loss of life on the Maine, but precipitated the Spanish-American war in which many more were killed. If this scamp is telling the truth, and we prefer to believe he is not, he will have much to answer for before high heaven. The bomb-thrower is the most dangerous outlaw of the present day, as the victims of his malice are ever at his mercy. He is liable to appear in crowds and wreak vengeance not only upon those who have incurred his wrath but upon many more innocent bystanders. It was said that the discovery of gunpowder was the death knell of knight errantry. The expert with the sword found himself at the mercy of the clown or any one else who had sufficient nerve to pull a trigger. The police, military and all the retinue of preservers of the peace in this generation are unequal to the miserable coward who can get close enough to hurl a bomb.

THE Philadelphia North American in mentioning the recent decision of the Maryland Court of Appeals concerning the constitutional amendment says:

The Maryland Court of Appeals Thursday decided unanimously in favor of the constitutional amendment adopted by the last legistature for the disfranchisement of negroes. Thus Governor Warfield (republican) will be compelled to proclaim the amendment so that it can be voted on at the fall election. This is regarded as a victory for the democratic organization.

Gov. Warfield was elected as a democrat, but his action in several party matters after he became governor was calculated to make others, as well as the usually well informed North American, think he is a republican. But the decision of the court was a democratic victory all the same.

IN THE adventures of Baron Munchausen had that renowned individual stated that on one occasion, while at work in a tunnel under a river he was blown through a steel tube upward, passing through eight feet of mud and twenty-five feet of water to the surface and finally reaching the shore, the story would have been read with the same regard for the baron's veracity as his trip to the North Star or his flight through the air after having been fired out of a cannon. And yet a workman in the tunnel now being constructed under the East river, at New York, passed through the experience recited above in the presence of witnesses above and below the river, and is now living and giving the details of his experience.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., March 30.

In the embassies and legations of the foreign powers here the optimism which prevails in some quarters on the subject of the early conclusion of peace between Japan and Russia finds little support. There is a general belief that Russia would be glad to end hostilities, provided she could do so on her own terms. And it is that provision which makes the diplomats here skeptical of any successful conclusion to whatever peace negotiations may be now in progress. While they do not deny the possibility that such negotiations may be on foot it is declared that if that were the case the fact would in all likelihood be communicated here, and careful inquiry has failed to disclose any diplomat at this capital who has received information or instructions on the subject. The general opinion is that when the two belligerents are ready to discuss peace they will do so without any intermediary and that the negotiations will be conducted between St. Petersburg and Tokio direct. As for the place at which the final treaty of peace will be signed, opinions differ, but the majority sentiment seems to point to Stockholm rather than Washington. It has been asserted with a great deal of confidence that Ambassador Jusserand's recent call on the President was for the purpose of discussing peace preliminaries. This is most positively denied at the French Embassy, where it is declared that the ambassador in the absence of instructions from his government could not broach such a subject to the President.

China is preparing to build a great navy. Sir Robert Hart, the director general of the customs, has submitted a plan whereby the revenues of the empire from customs and internal taxes will be increased from about $56,800,000 to $244,000,000. With the additional money thus obtained Sir Robert proposes to build 20 iron clad battleships, 20 armored cruisers and 120 torpedo boats, all to be constructed within ten years. Our foreign representatives who have reported this news of the great project to the State Department advise American contractors to put in bids for constructing the ships and furnishing the war materials that will be needed by China.

President Roosevelt has promised to visit New York on May 30th to attend the dedication of the monument erected to the memory of the victims of the Slocum disaster.

President Roosevelt told a number of Senators and Members of Congress this morning that he expected to call the extraordinary session of Congress for the consideration of railroad rate legislation, on or about October 15th.

Friends of Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, who are in Washington, characterize as untrue a story printed this morning in a New York weekly society journal that he is engaged to Miss Alice Roosevelt. Following the general practice regarding such reports, the White House declines to either confirm or deny it.

The Department of Commerce and Labor announces that exports to China from the United States in the first eight months of the present fiscal year broke all previous records, and indicate the total during the twelve months ended June 30th next, will reach the unprecedented figure of 40 million dollars, while to the Orient, as a whole, the total will probably approximate 150 million dollars in value. Our exports to Asia and Oceania in the eight months ended with February, 1905, amounted to $92,523,412 practically equal to the total shown by the full 12 months of the fiscal year 1904.

Dr. Jose de Jesus Paul, the special representative from Venezuela who is in this country to arrange terms with the creditors of the republic, called upon the President this morning. Wayne MacVeagh, who for a number of years has been prominently identified with Venezuelan troubles in court, called soon after Dr. Paul arrived. When Dr. Paul came out he asserted that there are no differences of importance between the two countries. "All the trouble has been caused by Minister Bowen," said Dr. Paul, "and that is purely a personal matter between him and President Castro. I believe that President Roosevelt will solve the problem by recalling Mr. Bowen in the near future. I am given to understand that he is even now considering the matter very seriously. If called upon another matter altogether" said Mr. MacVeagh, when he emerged from the President's office."

Naval officers ridicule the "confession" of Rosseau, who is courting notoriety by explaining, from his own knowledge, the explosion that destroyed the battleship Maine seven years ago. They say the hallucination that an infernal machine intended for a Spanish warship was fastened to the Maine one night through blunder could only be possessed by a madman or some pervert untamiliar with Havana harbor.

The Washington Jockey Club could hardly have chosen better weather for the races at Benning than that which has prevailed since the opening last week. The attendance is very large every day and all seem to enjoy the "sport of kings."

M. J. Hornsby, colored from Yazoo, Miss., called at the White House this morning to tell the President a story of mistreatment at the hands of the whites of his home town. He said that on February 7th he had passed a civil service examination for a postoffice clerkship at Yazoo. The vacancy at that place, said Hornsby, was caused by the leavetaking of another colored man who had been run out of town by the whites. Hornsby said that he was threatened with death unless he quit the place. Hornsby did not see the Executive. The matter will probably be investigated by the Civil Service Commission.

Rear-Admiral Robley D. Evans will tomoroow assume command of the North Atlantic fleet at Pensacola, Fla., Rear-Admiral A. S. Barker, the present commander in chief of the big fleet will haul down his flag and that of Rear Admiral Evans will be hoisted. Admiral Parker goes on the retired list because of age. There will be little or no ceremony connected with Admiral Evans' assumption of command. Admiral Evans has had many commands in his long and momentous career but never has he exercised supreme command over a fleet as large and powerful as that on the North Atlantic station. Eight battleships of the first class, sixteen cruisers, two fast scout cruisers, one second class battleship and three coast defense monitors, eight torpedo boat destroyers and eight auxiliaries will constitute what the officials of the Navy Department designate as the first "Home" squadron this country has ever had. Admiral Evans has selected the new battleship Maine for his flagship. In the event it becomes necessary for this country to send a fleet to Venezuelan waters, Admiral Evans will probably command the expedition.

Oil of turpentine is a certain protection against influenza, according to a report just received by the State Department from United States Consul General Guenther, at Frankfort, Germany. In 1890 when the disease was epidemic throughout Europe, it did not appear in one factory at Madretsch. Investigation showed that oil of turpentine was used there in the turning of metals used for watch cases and the workmen inhaled the vapors. "This preventive measure," says Mr. Guenther, "may be successfully employed in dwellings and the inhaling of water vapors with oil of terpentine is said to act favorably on the effected respiratory organs.

The Supreme Court issued the writ, and made it returnable to the court en banc on April 11. The application charges the company with being in combination to control prices and the supply of oil in the State.

NATIONS INVITED TO JAMESTOWN.

In accordance with an act of Congress, the President has issued the following proclamation inviting all the nations of the earth to be represented at the Jamestown Exposition in 1907 by military organizations and naval vessels.

Whereas, The Congress of the United States has passed an act, approved March 3, 1905, and entitled "an act to provide for celebrating the birth of the American nation, the first permanent settlement of English-speaking people on the Western Hemisphere, by the holding of an international naval, marine and military celebration in the vicinity of Jamestown, on the waters of Hampton Roads, in the State of Virginia, to provide for the suitable and permanent commemoration of said event and to authorize an appropriation in aid therefor and for other purposes."

The President of the United States is hereby authorized to make proclamation of said celebration, setting forth the event to be commemorated, inviting foreign nations to participate by the sending of their naval vessels and such representation of their military organizations as may be proper."

Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, by virtue of the authority vested in me by said act, do hereby declare and proclaim that there shall be inaugurated in the year 1907 at and near the waters of Hampton Roads, in the State of Virginia, an international naval, marine and military celebration, beginning May 13 and ending not later than November 1, 1907, for the purpose of commemorating in a fitting and appropriate manner the birth of the American nation; the permanent settlement of English-speaking people on the American Continent made at Jamestown, Va., on the 13th day of May, 1607, and in order that the great events of the American history, which have resulted therefrom, may be accentuated to the present and future generations of American citizens.

And in the name of the government and people of the United States, I do therefore invite all the nations of the earth to take part in the commemoration of the event which has had a far-reaching effect on the course of human history, by sending their naval vessels to the said celebration and by making such representations of their military organization as may be proper.

THE WAR.

The Czar is still said to be the keenest advocate of reasons why the war should be continued, and is reported to have said: "If I have to sign a peace treaty I cannot remain Czar," which has aroused the liveliest speculation among Russians as to what he means.

Concern over the spirit of anarchy astir in many parts of the empire is growing, and in particular lawlessness and arson in the Crimea have occasioned grave anxiety.

It is emphatically asserted that neither Russia nor Japan have asked President Roosevelt to act as mediator in peace negotiations, and it is asserted that peace will not come unless St. Petersburg makes overtures to Tokio direct.

From St. Petersburg comes the statement that a step in the direction of peace has been taken by Russia indirectly making known to Japan that no territory can be ceded and no money indemnity paid as the price for the cessation of hostilities.

A report is prevalent in Paris that Japan has permitted Russia to learn that $800,000,000 will be the amount of the indemnity demanded.

How the Money Goes.

That attempts were made to influence Frank P. Ball, the Dunkirk ticket broker alleged to have been placed in the Fredonia postoffice by the influence of Justice Warren B. Hooker, to disclose certain facts claimed to be in his possession, was the substance of the testimony of Ball before the New York assembly judiciary committee at Albany, N. Y., yesterday, in the resumption of the investigation into the charges against Justice Hooker.

Ball testified that, although he had done no work at the Fredonia postoffice, he had received $2,582. Practically all of this, he said, was used to repay the wife of Judge Hooker, who had indorsed a note for him. Later he returned every cent of the amount he had received to the postmaster at Fredonia, who had been ordered to refund it to the government.

Dear Sirs: Shuffert Hardware Co., Hickory, N. C., bought a car-load of paint; after selling it a few months, found out it measured seven pints a "gallon."

Returned it to the maker and credited customers with what they had lost from short measure.

What do you think of a short-measure paint? Don't you think it half whitewash? Half the paints are part whitewash.

Go by the name: Devoe lead-and-zinc. No whiting or clay in that; full measure besides. A gallon Devoe is worth two of whitewash paint. Yours truly,

Today's Telegraphic News

Peace Prospects Fading.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—Peace today seems to be further away. Your correspondent is informed from an authoritative source that it is the Czar's desire, just at present, not to end the war yet. This is due to his belief that Admiral Rojestvensky may yet succeed in defeating Admiral Togo's fleet. A prominent diplomat said today to your correspondent: "I am informed that the Czar considers he would be guilty of criminal folly if he did not take the final chance of readjusting the far Eastern balance by ordering the Baltic fleets to attempt to crush Togo. If Rojestvensky is beaten matters will not be any worse than they are now, while if he is victorious, it would change the whole complexion of the campaign. The Czar considers the chance worth taking and my latest information was that he was resolved on this course. His resolutions, however, change daily, and no one in the world, least of all the Czar himself, can predict from his views one day what will be his attitude the next."

St. Petersburg, March 30.—The Russkoye Slovo states that it is able to announce on good authority that the reports that peace negotiations have commenced, have no foundation. The decision to continue the war until a victorious result is obtained is irrevocable. The mobilization and dispatch of new troops to Manchuria is an eloquent means of persuasion regarding Russia's intention even to the most skeptical.

The paper states that the equipping of the Fourth squadron will be completed in April.

Berlin, March 30.—The Frankfurter Zeitung says that a conference of the powers will assemble at Paris to determine conditions of peace, and this is considered an indication that a movement is on foot to depriye Japan of the fruits of victory on the ground of "the yellow peril." A great effort will be made to secure the support of America to the anti-Japanese agitation.

Berlin, March 30. — The German Foreign Office authorizes the statement that no peace negotiations have been begun between Russia and Japan, and there is no indication that there comatants desire to enter into negotiations.

Russia's Internal Troubles.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—The internal troubles of Russia are increasing. Late reports show that the disorders are being kept up in many quarters. The latest dispatch says that a mob of peasantry looted the estate of the Princess Jussapoff in the Vononenz district. Cholera is spreading in southern Russia, adding intense alarm to the general unrest. The strike situation in the Riga district is not improved. The social democrats are blamed to some extent in fomenting the disorders and several local leaders of the social democratic federation have been arrested.

The bold stand taken by Besiarbetza of the Journal of Kroussivanj, whose office was recently stoned, has startled the leaders. Referring to the demonstration against him the editor publishes the following: "We only write to say that these and similar methods are stupid and useless; stupid, because they only increase the sympathy of the public for our paper and therefore react against the object of the outrage, and useless, because our windows are insued. At the same time we inform our friends that the life of the editor is insured for 300,000 roubles, and his will provides for the publication of the paper after his death without any change in its tendency."

St. Petersburg, March 30.—The reports that Grand Duke Vladimir is very much alarmed for his personal safety are undoubtedly true.

He visited St. Petersburg recently, coming here from Tarskoe-Selo, and concealed himself on a train carrying goods and disguished as a railway official. He drove from the railway to the rear entrance of his own palace in a mail cart. After a stay of several hours in the palace, he returned to Tsarskoe Selo, using the same precautions to avoid recognition.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—Professor Karajevski has been giving a course of lectures in the hall of the Association of Jurists, for the purpose of combating the revolutionary sentiment among the more intelligent classes. In one of his recent lectures he undertook to prove that a democratic constitution is impossible, whereupon his audience of 800 people, of whom 500 were ladies, hooted him off the platform. Fifteen subsequent speakers denounced Karajevski roundly, and the meeting broke up in great disorder.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—Two attempts to assassinate military and police authorities are reported from different parts of the empire today. At Dunaburg, in the Vitebsk district an unknown man fired three shots from a revolver at M. Buligaine, the assistant police minister, and dangerously wounded the official. The assailant escaped. At noon today, several pistol shots were fired at Col. Progonlbity, commander of the troops at Sucuam, but he escaped unhurt.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—The police arrested a suspicious man at the Hotel Palais Royal, today. When his room was searched, several bombs were found. The man is supposed to be a dangerous anarchist.

War in the East.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—Dispatches received from Manchuria indicate that there may be a resumption of active hostilities in the near future.

A telegram received from Harbin says that the main Japapese army is within thirty versts (about twenty miles) of the Russian outpost, Japanese proclamations have reached Harbin, stating that the Mikado's army intends to occupy Harbin about the middle of April.

No further news has been received in the last 24 hours regard to the reported wide turning movements of the Japanese toward the northwest and northeast. The fears of military experts that these movements which would pratically leave Linievith's army isolated and cut off from all source of supplies are actually in progress, have not been allayed by the long silence, however.

Paris, March 30.—A telegram from St. Petersburg, states that the railroad between Harbin and Vladivostok has been cut by the Japanese, and that the heavy Russian siege guns captured at Port Arthur, have been sent in the direction of Vladivostock.

Guntshu Pass has been evacuated by the Russians after a fight. This pass is about 130 miles south of Harbin.

St. Petersburg, March 30.—A late telegram from Sitjas, Manchuria dated today, says: "The Chinese report that a Japanese column which is probably engaged in carrying out a flanking movement has been twenty seven miles northeast of Sipinsai. Snow has fallen heavily here.

Dispatches received last night said that General Linievitch was preparing to give battle to the Japanese at Singsai, and that his position was being fortified. The Japanese were reported to be gathering in force twenty miles south of that place.

Murdered by His Wife.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 30.—Michael Nokovitch, aged 27, an Austrian, residing at No. 3015 Smallman street, was murdered shortly after last midnight by his wife, Annie, aged 20 years. She struck him while in bed several times with a hatchet, the fatal blow being one on the neck. She was arrested and taken to jail to await the action of the coroner's jury. The cause assigned for the crime was revenge for the brutality of the husband. The couple were married four years ago in Austria. About a year ago Nokovitch came to this country. About two months ago his wife followed him here. Since the arrival of the woman the husband has not done much work and every day has been more or less marked by furious quarrels between the two. From what the police have been able to ascertain the husband had been demanding that his wife earn money for him by leading a life of shame. The couple had two rooms, and in the front room in which the husband and wife slept there were also bunks for six of the male boarders. The others slept in the adjoining room. The woman objected to this method of life. The climax came last evening. About 10 o'clock the husband knocked down the woman with a bottle, and snortly after that he went to bed. About midnight the woman, who had followed her husband to bed, got out and in a moment returned with a hatchet. Three blows were struck. The first gashed his stomach, the second made a gaping wound in the chest, while the third landed squarely on his throat, almost severing the head from the trunk, Death was instantaneous. The woman is fair looking, and, attired in a blue suit and black shawl, presented the appearance of an innocent country girl.

Young Women Assaulted.

New York, March 30.—A vicious assault was made upon two young women, Margaret Fritz and Annie Williams, who came here to seek work from Mauch Chunk, Pa., in their room at No. 4 Commerce street, today. The girls, who are under 20 years of age, were badly maltreated. After the assault the men fled, taking with them sixty cents in money. They were arrested later on the charge of assault. The girls came here recently to obtain work and rented a room. Early this morning knocking was heard and demands were made to open the door. The girls became frightened and were attempting to escape at a front window when the door was broken down and two men, with handkerchiefs drawn across their faces, broke into the room. Without parley they set upon the girls and beat them to the floor, threatening them with death if they screamed. Miss Fritz fought desperately and was felled time and again before her strength deserted her. Her companion had already been beaten into insensibility. The men then robbed the place and fled. A short while later Policeman James Murray saw two white robed figures running toward him in the street. Their faces were streaming with blood and they were taken to the station house, where they told the story of the assault. They said they had attempted to follow their assailants, but were too weak. A general alarm was sent out by the police and from clues obtained the arrest of James Bradley and Joseph Patterson followed. Both are said to have police records.

Fire in the Subway.

New York, March 30.—The fire in the subway at 168th street which followed an explosion yesterday, when a runaway train crashed into a bulkhead, said to contain dynamite, was extinguished early this morning, after the firemen had practically flooded the tunnel at that point. The Interborough Company officials deny that the fire was caused by an explosion of dynamite loaded on a car for use in blasting operations. They say several barrels of lubricating oil were set on fire by the runaway train striking the bulkhead and causing a short circuit. Flames followed the explosion. No lives were lost. The fire will delay the opening of the upper end of the subway. Loosened by the fearful heat the brick roof of the tunnel fell this morning and crushed to death Samuel Lyally, a fireman on an engine. Portions of the tunnel roofing had been caving in all night, and the bosses had warned the firemen of their danger.

Accident on French Railroad.

Paris, March 30.—A serious accident occurred this morning on the Sceaux Railroad line near Arcueil, three miles south of Paris. A passenger train was derailed and the cars were upset. The wreckage caught fire, adding to the horror. Three persons were killed and seven injured. The Sceaux line is a remarkable feat of engineering, the tracks winding between the hills to the south of Paris. Some of the curves are so sharp that cars of a special pattern are required to make the sudden swings from right to left.

Destructive Fire.

Elmira, N. Y., March 30.—Fire at the New York State Reformatory this morning caused damage estimated at $75,000. The flames originated in the general storeroom, and fanned by a brisk east wind, spread to the tailor shop, laundry, bath house, shoe shop, and the hospital. There were 25 patients in the hospital but all were removed in safety. There was no panic among the inmates. The fire started at 12:30 o'clock, and was not extinguished until 6 o'clock.

Winnipeg, Manitoba, March 30.—The third section of the home seekers excursion train, which left Toronto Tuesday with settlers for the northwest, went into a ditch at Dryden, 65 miles east of Rat Portage. The accident is the worst in the history of the Canadian Pacific Railroad. From reports so far received, all doctors have left Rat Portage for the scene. The authorities of the road refuse to make any statement. There were about 500 persons on the train.

An Unfounded Rumor.

Chicago, March 30.—A report was circulated about the city last night, and found publication this morning, that Robert T. Lincoln, ex-Minister to Great Britain, had died suddenly in Florida. Further inquiry disclosed the fact that Mr. Lincoln left North Augusta, S. C., last night for Chicago and is expected here tomorrow. Mrs. Lincoln is in Iowa visiting friends.

Two most unusual suicides were committed near Pottsville, Pa., today, Joseph Rougeist, of Gilberton, aged 23 years, blowing himself to atoms with dynamite, and Mrs. Isaac Bachman, aged 47 years, wife of a railroad engineer, drowning herself in a well.

Murdered Woman.

Broken barrel staves found within a few feet of the spot where the murdered woman, believed to be Eliza Davis, sister of a New York policeman, was discovered on the bank of the Wall-Kill river, near Gardner, Ulster county, N. Y., leads the authorities to believe that her murderer put her body in a barrel and then threw it into the river. Blood-stains and part of the woman's clothing were on the barrel staves, and greatly strengthen this theory. Chief of Police Rouk, of Walden, went to Gardiner late yesterday evening and, after looking at the body, said he thought it was that of a young woman known to have been near the Wall-Kill river on March 17. Rev. Dr. J. Lewis, of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, of Walden, told Chief Ronk that a trolley car conductor, who is one of his parishioners, had noticed a strange young and well-dressed woman on his car on March 27. She came from Newburg, and left the car in Main street, Walden, near the river bridge. She has not been seen since. Her description closely fits that of the dead woman, and a search is now being made in Newburg to ascertain if anyone is missing from there.

More Trouble.

An American man-of-war will be sent to Port-au-Prince to protect American interests. This determination was arrived at yesterday when the State Department received a cablegram from Minister Powell saying that serious trouble is impending in Hayti, and it is doubtful whether the authorities can maintain peace and order on March 31 and April 1. The State Department immediately requested the Navy Department to dispatch a war vessel to Port-au-Prince. State Department officials are unable to explain the significance of the dates, March 31 and April 1, mentioned in the cablegram from Minister Powell as the days on which trouble might be expected in Hayti. It can only be surmised that another revolution is imminent on the island.

Two Divorce Cases.

Howard Franklin Sorg in Washington, on Tuesday, instituted proceedings for divorce against Ollie A. Sorg. They were married at Manassas, January 26, 1904. It is alleged that she has been living at Manassas since December, 15, 1904.

Louise R. Hayes, in Washington, Tuesday, sued her husband, Earnest O. Hayes, of Warrenton, for divorce. It is set forth in the bill of complaint that the parties were married in Baltimore by Rev. C. B. Harris on April 8, 1897, and lived together until last December. It is also averred that the defendant is now engaged in schooling and training jumping and running horses at the Benning racetrack, where he now has three horses.

Excitement in the Station House

A large crowd was in the station house this morning to witness the proceedings in the case of William Oehlert, William Whalen and Harrie Robinson, who had been arrested on suspicion of robbing cars at Franconia last Monday night. Special Officers Duke and Duncan, of the R., F. & P. R. R., were present, and the first-named identified clothing worn by one of the prisoners as corresponding to some taken from a car. The prisoners were represented by Mr. L. H. Machen. Oehlert not having been sufficiently identified, was dismissed, but Whalen and Robinson were turned over to the special officers who exhibited a warrant issued at Manassas for the arrest of the two men. The passageway from the dock to the justice's office is L-shaped, running due west for about twenty feet and then turning due north. The passageway is enclosed by a railing about four feet high. The two men started ahead of the officers, and policemen who were in the justice's office were told to keep a lookout for the prisoners. The warning had barely been given when Whalen, with the agility of a cat, leaped over the western end of the railing into the midst of the spectators, scattering them right and left, and ran down the steps into the Market alley amid cries of "stop him." Some endeavored to do so, and caught hold of his coat, but the fugitive succeeded in divesting himself of that garment and made his escape. Whalen was last seen running through West End, heading westward.

Fined Five Dollars Each.

Courtney Wilson, a well known exhorter, was before the bar in the Police Court this morning charged with assault and interfering with Constable Cline who was endeavoring to execute a law process. It seems that a sewing machine had been procured by members of the family and the agent, not being satisfied with the manner in which his terms were being complied with, was attempting to recover it by law. Wilson lives in the northwestern part of the city, and the disturbance drew many people to the house and Officer Bettis appeared for the purpose of preserving the peace. In the examination of the case this morning Wilson had a long tale to unfold, but Justice Caton put in his pruning knife as soon as the accused started with his preamble, which referred to the period he had lived in Alexandria, &c., &c. Upon being reminded that he must confine himself to what occurred yesterday, he resumed his story by saying he purchased a sewing machine in 1897, which caused Justice Caton to again inform him that he could listen to no preface dating back eight years. It appeared that Wilson's daughter Rosetta armed herself with a hammer and assumed a menacing attitude toward Constable Cline during the trouble, and she and her father were fined $5 each.

Miss Lee's Remains.

The body of Miss Mildred C. Lee was yesterday escorted to the railroad station in New Orleans by delegations from various Confederate societies. Interment will be in Lexington tomorrow evening.

General Stephen D. Lee, of the United Confederate Veterans, has issued the following order:

A feeling of sorrow, deep and profound, will enter every Southern home when it is learned that Miss Mildred Lee, the youngest child of our immortal chieftain, Robert E. Lee, died suddenly in this city yesterday. Gifted by nature with a wonderful mind, the liberal education which her idolized father gave her, improved and broadened by extensive travel and close observation, set her apart as an ideal representative of the womanhood of the South, and her queenly and courteous bearing called forth the admiration of all who were so fortunate as to know her. She was devoted to the old soldiers of the Confederate armies, and was never so happy as when in conversation with one of them, or talking to others of the glorious deeds of our boys. Her untimely death is a distinct loss to the whole South and an extreme grief to every Confederate veteran.

Mr. Caton in Halifax.

In its account of the democratic meeting at Houston, Halifax county, on Monday, the Richmond Times Dispatch says: In response to calls, Colonel Caton, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, responded. He discussed better schools and good roads, and called attention to the fact that but for Mr. Ellyson's declination in January he would have not been in the field. Colonel Caton made a catchy speech, and evidently made a good impression on the audience. After Colonel Caton's speech there were loud and persistent calls for Ellyson, and he responded briefly. He said that Colonel Caton had no reason to complain if he had given him two months' advantage in the race, and much applause greeted this sally. He discussed roads, primary schools and pensions in an instructive manner and was applauded frequently during his address. Unquestionably the crowd was with Swanson overwhelmingly. As to the senatorship, Martin appeared a decided favorite.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Charles Smith, arrested by acting Lieutenant Young charged with shooting a pistol in the street, was fined $5.

Courtney Wilson and his daughter Rosetta, both colored, arrested by Officer Smith charged with an assault on M. H. Dent, were fined $5 each.

A resident of the Third ward, arrested by Officer Bettis charged with assaulting and beating a boy, was dismissed.

Wm. Oehlert, charged with robbing cars of the R., F. & P. Railroad Co., was dismissed.

William Whalen and Harrie Robinson, charged with a similar offense, were turned over to Special Officers Duke and Duncan on a warrant issued at Manassas.

A farmers' meeting was held at Fairfax today which was attended by many people of that county.

Personal.

It is reported that Mr. Robert Scott Hume, a son of Mr. Frank Hume, may be a candidate for the democratic nomination for delegate to the legislature from this city and county.

Mr. Robert Taylor and Miss Olive Javins, both of Fairfax county, were married at Sharon Chapel on Tuesday night by Rev. S. A. Wallis. The chapel was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the wedding was attended by a large number of friends of the bride and groom.

Rev. R. H. McKim, of Washington, will preach at Christ Church tonight.

Mr. G. J. Cooksey, of Clifton, Va., and Mrs. M. F. Purvis, of this city, were quietly married last night by Rev. J. A. Jeffers.

Miss Hoxton, of Seminary Hill, is visiting Mrs. Grant, of Charlottesville.

Mr. Julian T. Burke has gone to Lexington to attend the funeral of Miss Mildred Lee, which is to take place there tomorrow.

Mr. Robert Taylor, who has been quite sick at his home on the Washington road, is much better. His many friends trust that it will not be long before he will be out and able to attend to his business.

Misses Lisa and Grace Anderson are visiting friends in Baltimore.—Mr. Carroll Pierce, assistant cashier of Citizens' National Bank of Alexandria, spent Sunday with friends in town.—Mr. Robert L. Monroe, of the firm of Garrett & Monroe, Alexandria, was in Leesburg on Monday for the first time since last December, having been confined to his room all winter by a severe indisposition.—[Leesburg Mirror.

The Lower River Wharves.

The work of rebuilding Somerset Beach wharf, on the Virginia side of the river, about forty miles below this city, is now going on, and in a few days the pier will once more be in good order. The rebuilding of the other wharves which were damaged by ice is also being pushed and most of them will again be in good order in a week or two. Clifton Beach, on the Maryland side of the river, will not, it is stated, be rebuilt, and the closing of Liverpool Point wharf as a steamboat landing leaves long stretches of the river without a wharf. It is stated that during the coming summer wharves will be built to replace these missing piers, and the residents in that section of Maryland will not have so far to travel to reach a wharf for steamboat service.

The Fishery.

The fishing season is still tarrying, although the local fishermen are catching many fine perch, black bass, catfish, &c., near this city. Shad, however, are still scarce and the few that have entered the Potomac are many miles below. Mr. Thomas Perry received a few yesterday evening from Coan river. Herring are more abundant. Shad were retailing this morning at from 30 to 60 cents each and herring at 25a30 cents a dozen. Other fish were about unchanged in price. The receipts of shad in Baltimore have increased. Bay shad in the wholesale market yesterday were selling at 45 cents apiece for roe and 20 cents a piece for buck.

Dog Fight.

A dog fight disturbed the serenity of north Columbus street late yesterday afternoon and resulted in the arraignment of Charles Smith in the Police Court this morning on the charge of discharging a revolver on a public thoroughfare. According to the evidence Smith's dog and a canine belonging to a man named Hansborough got into a fight and Smith says he urged Hansborough to call his animal off. Hansborough failing to respond, Smith procured a pistol and shot both of the curs. Smith was fined $5. The affair caused some commotion in the station house this morning, as female relatives of the parties involved were present and they seemed to regard the incident as something serious.

The New Ferry.

Arrangements for the reopening of the ferry between this city and Washington are, it is said, being pushed as rapidly as possible. The new company will be formally organized on Monday next. The terminal in this city is to be rebuilt on modern principles, and the gentlemen at the head of the new organization are now endeavoring to secure a boat which will be put upon the line as soon as possible for the convenience of Alexandria merchants who are now forced to send goods over the road in wagons. It is believed by persons in positions to know that a boat will be procured within a few days.

The Montague Club.

The Montague Club recently organized in this city held a meeting last night at the rooms of the Business Men's League. Capt. Albert Bryan, president, presided, and Thomas A. Fisher was elected secretary. The following vice presidents were elected: First Ward, N. P. T. Burke and R. E. Knight; Second Ward, Louis H. Machen and Charles B. Paff; Third Ward, John Harrison and George L. Simpson, and Fourth Ward, Henry F. Robertson and Frank S. Harper.

Charter.

The Corporation Commission has granted a charter to the Lincoln Telephone Company, of Loudoun county. The officers of the company are: W. T. Smith, president, Lincoln: H. T. Pancoast, secretary and treasurer, Purcellville. The capital stock is $5,000 and the objects are to construct, maintain and operate an electric telephone line in the county of Loudoun and to do a general telephone business.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Virginia Emerson took place this afternoon from the residence of Mr. H. Kirk, 208 north Columbus street, and was attended by friends and acquaintances of the deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips and the pallbearers were Capt. V. Ashby, and Messrs. D. H. Appich, Chas. Bruin Wm. Wood, J. C. Milburn and D. L. Garvey.

Fractured Ankle.

William Cramlett, of Baltimore, had his right ankle fractured while at work on a train at Shepherd's yesterday evening. He was brought to this city and placed in the Alexandria Hospital where he received surgical aid.

Death of Mr. Atkinson.

Mr. Walter P. Atkinson, son of Capt. R. H. Atkinson, died at his home on King street, this afternoon. The deceased leaves a widow. He had been a sufferer from consumption.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There was a light shower of rain about noon today.

Five lodgers were accommodated at the station house last night.

A beautiful piece of cut class ware was raffled last night by the Jewish Council of Women. It was won by Mr. M. R. Norris, who held ticket 101.

The Alexandria Perpetual Building Fund Association has sold to Sophie A. Smith a house and lot on the north side of Queen street between Payne and West.

Mrs. Camilla L. Edelin died at her home, Hatton Creek, in Cobb Neck, Charles county, Md., Tuesday, in the seventy-third year of her age. She was the widow of Dr. E. V. Edelen.

The Allison W.C. T. U. will hold its regular business meeting at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon in the parlors of the Children's Home. Those who have lately joined are urged to be present.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Claud C. Hinson and Bessie J. Bettis, both of Upperville; Herbert O. Green and Sarah E. Ledbetter, both of Petersburg; Luther Gore and Alice Fletcher both of Culpeper, and to James W. Atkins and Henrietta Waldrop, both of Louisa county.

A man with a monkey were again in evidence about the streets yesterday and from early morn until late in the afternoon an old time barrel organ played three old time tunes over and over again demonstrating that spring has surely come. When the man with the organ and monkey struck the neighborhood of Duke and Royal streets, the inmates of the Children's Home seemed to become unmanageable until the doors and gates of the institution were opened wide. There the man played over and over again his three old stand-by tunes, and the little scarlet coated monkey went through his many tricks. The scene was an old time one, and a happy one.

Mr. Eggleston's Charge.

J. D. Eggleston, jr., superintendent of schools of Prince Edward county, who is a candidate for the office of superintendent of public instruction of Virginia to succeed Dr. J. W. Southall, has sent out a circular letter, a portion of which bids fair to arouse much comment. He charges that there is a waste of school funds under that provision which makes it the duty of the superintendent of public instruction "to prepare suitable registers, blank forms, and regulations for making all reports," &c.

Mr. Eggleston, in this connection, specifies the Virginia school register. This is a blank book and cannot, therefore, be copyrighted. Regarding this, Mr. Eggleston says:

"One fully equal to the new Virginia school register can be printed and delivered into the hands of every district clerk for 25 cents a copy. The Virginia school register is sold to the school districts for 75 cents a copy, f. o. b. Richmond, although it can be sold without reducing the present profit of the printer for considerably less than one-half of this amount.

"No other register can be used at present in the State, as this one is an exclusive and compulsory single-list adoption—at a multiple list price. There are over 9,000 teachers in our public schools each of whom must have a register, and this enormous profit on each register has been paid out of the district funds for at least fifteen or twenty years."

While Mr. Eggleston does not make the statement, it is a fact that a large Virginia printing concern has offered to supply these registers at from 18 to 20 cents apiece.

On the book question Mr. Eggleston declares for the single system, saying:

"It is oppressive on the poor, a hardship on the average wage-earner, and an injustice to rich and poor alike, that they should be forced to pay from 15 to 50 per cent more for the same school-books than the people of other States."

Thinks Martin a Winner.

"Between Montague and Martin," said R. H. Bagby, of Berkely, Va., who was a caller at the headquarters of Senator Martin in company with Colonel R. C. Marshall and Sheriff Cromwell, of Norfolk county, "the contest will, I think, be close. But I expect to see Senator Martin win. He has made an able representative, the people are satisfied with him, and at this time there is no necessity for swapping horses, particularly when Senator Martin has demonstrated his capacity, fitness and readiness to look after the interests of the State in a manner which appeals to the business people.

"The people down my way rather favor two primaries, I think. They want one for the nomination of local officers only, and another for naming State officers, members of the general assembly and United States senator.

"Looks to me as it Swanson will carry Portsmouth by a big majority, while in Norfolk there is division between the three candidates, with Swanson well up in the fight and apparently as strong—if not stronger—than either of the others. Judge Mann is going to be much more of a factor there than one would suppose. He is popular and has many warm friends."—[Richmond News-Leader.

Married Two Wives on Same Day.

Thirteen proved to be an unlucky number for John Sleffler, of New York, and yesterday he pleaded guilty before Judge Newburger to having married two wives on the same day, the 13th of last August. Sleffler said he could give no reason for his act and could offer no explanation for having acquired the marrying habit. The court will make an investigation as to why the young man married two women on the same day. Early on August 13 he married Estelle Diffely, an 18-year old girl, living at 102 Leroy street. That evening Sleffler was married to Hannah Ackerman, of 522 Madison avenue.

Open Shop in Philadelphia.

After a long fight between the Master Carpenters and Builders' Company and the Associated Carpenters of Philadelphia, an agreement has been reached establishing the "open shop." The dispute arose when a majority of the Associated Carpenters, constituting Local Union, No. 277, of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters, were suspended for refusing to abide by the orders of the national officers in local affairs. Their former associates of the union began to treat them as non-union men, refusing to work with them and calling several strikes.—[Philadelphia North American.

THURSDAY EVENING, MAR. 30, 1905.

Negroes Oppose Exodus to North.

Leading negroes of the Richmond section have organized what will be known as the Southern Negro Anti-Exodus Association, with headquarters at Hanover Courthouse.

Milton J. Hewlett, of that place, is president. It is not a political organization, but it is for the purpose of conserving the best interests of the negro and keeping him at home. One of those in the movement makes this statement:

"We have been carried about for forty years by pretentious leaders, whose stock and trade was nothing more or less than the unfortunate condition of the brother in dark skin. But a few months ago we were robbed of thousands of dollars under the pretense of hiring the best talent to go before the Supreme Court to have the constitution of the State set aside, when they knew to the contrary, that the southern people had a right to change and revise a constitution at will for the prosecution of a government best suited to themselves.

"Ex-Senator Higgins, of Delaware, who voted for the passage of the 'Force bill,' said, notwithstanding he was going to vote for it, yet it was ordained of God that the great Anglo-Saxon should rule.

"Now, if this be so, it is not unreasonable for the negro to ask that that rulership be predicated upon righteousness. We were slaves once in the northern States. We were not freed and permitted to remain there, but sold south of the Mason and Dixon line, and the purchase money turned into dry goods. The Rev. Dean Richmond Babbitt, who ranks with the late Dr. Talmage and Henry Ward Beecher, has been greatly imposed upon by the parties who have asked him and others of like standing to stir up bad feeling on the line of their proposed exodus.

"These gentlemen of high rank should not take action upon ex-parte evidence; to the contrary, they should know all the facts before taking the stand pro or con. Every negro in the State of Virginia who wants to work is at work. The loafers are not needed anywhere and there is no need for any exodus."

Like Finding Money.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat or chest irritation, better act promptly like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine on earth. At E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store; 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Trust those who have tried.

I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind and never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that.—Oscar Ostrom, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.

I suffered from catarrh; it got so bad I could not work; I used Ely's Cream Balm and am entirely well.—A. C. Clarke, 341 Shawmut Ave., Boston, Mass.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cts, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of Indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Risings, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles.—N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which has entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Sold by all druggists.

Nothing will cure Indigestion that dosen't digest the food and give the stomach a rest, It isn't necessary to starve yourself in order to rest your stomach—take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes a rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by all druggists.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and by the proper treatment of these diseases a threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. There is no question whatever about this, as during the thirty years and more that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used, we have yet to learn of a single case of a cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used. It is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.
